MISSION OF MARTIN LUTHER COLLEGE

The mission of Martin Luther College is to train men and women to meet the public ministry needs of the Wisconsin Evangelical Lutheran Synod (WELS) and to proclaim the Word of God faithfully and in accord with the Lutheran Confessions in the Book of Concord. To fulfill this mission, Martin Luther College carries out all instruction and programs of student life according to the gospel as revealed in the inspired and inerrant Word of God.

With the guidance of the Holy Spirit, the college desires

- To deepen in the student saving faith in the forgiving grace of Jesus Christ;
- To strengthen the student in a consecrated spirit of love for God and his Word;
- To foster in the student a servant's heart for Christ-like service in the church, community, and world;
- To educate the student for faithful, capable, and intelligent citizenship in today's world;
- To assist the student in acquiring the knowledge, attitudes, and skills needed for service in the church and for lifelong learning;
- To help the student to develop the spiritual, emotional, and physical resiliency that will assist them to persevere in service under the cross; and
- To provide for the student an affordable college experience on a beautiful and attractive campus.

To meet the current ministry needs of the WELS, Martin Luther College

- Prepares men for pastoral training at Wisconsin Lutheran Seminary;
- Prepares men and women for service as teachers and staff ministers in the synod's churches, schools, and other institutions;
- Prepares men and women for other public ministry in the church, both full- and part-time, responding to the needs of the WELS;
- Prepares international students for ministry in partnership with WELS mission fields; and
- Provides programs of professional and continuing education that meet the ministerial needs of the WELS.

AS YOU SENT ME INTO THE WORLD,
I HAVE SENT THEM INTO THE WORLD.

JOHN 17:18

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

In last Sunday's gospel, we heard Jesus pray to his Father the words printed above.

In that prayer, spoken in the upper room the night he was betrayed, Jesus joyously (!) anticipates what would be accomplished on the cross the next day. The "joy set before him" (Heb 12:2) was to bring his Father glory by winning eternal life for all who would believe in him.

And then Jesus turns his prayer's attention to those gathered around him in that room. He admits what a dangerous place this world is for those who, through faith, no longer truly belong to this world. But this dangerous reality does not lead him to ask his Father to take them out of this world. Instead, he asks his Father to protect them by the power of his name, since Jesus would use them to carry his victory to that world. AS YOU SENT ME INTO THE WORLD, I HAVE SENT THEM INTO THE WORLD.

As Jesus notes just a few verses later, his prayer was not for those first disciples alone, but "for those who will believe in me through their message" (Jn 17:20). On that night he was betrayed, he prayed for each one of us who, down through the centuries, would believe in him. He doesn't pray that we be instantly ripped out of this world. Instead, he sends us out into that world, protected by his name, to be his messengers. AS YOU SENT ME INTO THE WORLD, I HAVE SENT THEM INTO THE WORLD.

So Jesus prays for every believer here. Yet his prayer has a special application for those who graduate today and hear their names connected to a place of ministry, and for those who move on to the seminary with another call day approaching faster than they can imagine.

These graduates are an answer to his prayer in two special ways, As they serve God in public ministry, they are protected by his gracious and powerful name, and they are his representatives, his messengers of the gospel. What a privilege!

Watch and listen in humble awe today. Before your eyes and in your ears, the Father is continuing to answer his Son's prayer! AS YOU SENT ME INTO THE WORLD, I HAVE SENT THEM INTO THE WORLD.

THE REGALIA

The academic apparel worn by faculty and graduates has its origins in the monastic tradition of the Middle Ages. In Christian freedom we can choose to follow such academic traditions or not. In this graduation service, our undergraduate faculty has chosen to wear normal attire to emphasize that we train students not just for academic achievement, but for ministry. Our graduate faculty has chosen to wear formal regalia to emphasize lifelong learning pursued in service to God and for the glory of God.

The various colors of apparel (baccalaureate tassels and master's hoods) indicate the degree-granting institution and the particular areas of study.

- Martin Luther College: red and black
- Education: light blue
- Theology: red

Finally, a small percentage of our students are from foreign countries. They wear stoles with the colors and insignia of their homelands.

READING

2 TIMOTHY 3:10-17

You, however, know all about my teaching, my way of life, my purpose, faith, patience, love, endurance, persecutions, sufferings—what kinds of things happened to me in Antioch, Iconium and Lystra, the persecutions I endured. Yet the Lord rescued me from all of them. In fact, everyone who wants to live a godly life in Christ Jesus will be persecuted, while evildoers and impostors will go from bad to worse, deceiving and being deceived. But as for you, continue in what you have learned and have become convinced of, because you know those from whom you learned it, and how from infancy you have known the Holy Scriptures, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, so that the servant of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work.

- M: The Word of the Lord.
C: Thanks be to God.

CHORAL ANTHEM

O WORD OF GOD

Arranged by Craig Courtney

O Word of God incarnate,
O Wisdom from on high,
O Truth unchanged, unchanging,
O Light of our dark sky,
we praise you for the radiance
that from the hallowed page,
a lantern to our footsteps,
shines on from age to age.

The Church from you, dear Master,
received the gift divine,
and still that light is lifted
o'er all the earth to shine.
It is the sacred vessel
where gems of truth are stored;
it is the heaven-drawn picture
of Christ, the living Word.

The Scripture is a banner,
before God's host unfurled;
it is a shining beacon
above the darkening world.
It is the chart and compass
that o'er life's surging tide,
mid mists and rocks and quicksands
to you, O Christ, will guide.

O make your Church, dear Savior,
a lamp of purest gold
to bear before the nations
your true light, as of old.
O teach your wand'ring pilgrims
by this their path to trace
till, clouds and darkness ended,
they see you face to face. Amen.

SERMON

2 CORINTHIANS 4:7-12

But we have this treasure in jars of clay to show that this all-surpassing power is from God and not from us. We are hard pressed on every side, but not crushed; perplexed, but not in despair; persecuted, but not abandoned; struck down, but not destroyed. We always carry around in our body the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be revealed in our body. For we who are alive are always being given over to death for Jesus' sake, so that his life may also be revealed in our mortal body. So then, death is at work in us, but life is at work in you.

YOU ARE . . . CLAY JARS . . . TREASURE-FILLED . . . INDESTRUCTIBLE

We remember especially today the gift of this school of ministry, the blessings of the past school year, parents and all others who support the training of future ministers of your Word with prayers and gifts, faithful students who apply themselves to their tasks with diligence, dedicated faculty and staff who follow your ways, and our church body that comes together to proclaim the good news to all people.

C: Above all, we thank you for our Savior Jesus and the forgiveness he has won for us.

M: O Lord, bless our graduates. Bless those who will begin public ministry as teachers and staff ministers. Give them strength and joy in their work of sharing the gospel.

M: O God the Father, Creator of heaven and earth,
C: Have mercy on us.

M: O God the Son, Redeemer of the world,

M: O God the Holy Spirit, advocate and guide,
C: Have mercy on us.

M: Holy, blessed, and glorious Trinity, three persons in one God,
C: Have mercy on us.

M: Govern and direct your holy Church, fill it with love and truth, and grant it that unity which is according to your will.
C: Hear us, good Lord.

M: Enlighten all ministers of the gospel with true knowledge and understanding of your Word, that by their teaching and living they may declare it clearly and show its truth.
C: Hear us, good Lord.

M: Encourage and prosper your servants who spread the gospel in all the world, and send out laborers into the harvest.
C: Hear us, good Lord.

M: Bless and keep your people, good Lord.

READING

EPHESIANS 4:1-13

As a prisoner for the Lord, then, I urge you to live a life worthy of the calling you have received. Be completely humble and gentle; be patient, bearing with one another in love. Make every effort to keep the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace. There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to one hope when you were called; one Lord, one faith, one baptism; one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all.

But to each one of us grace has been given as Christ apportioned it. This is why it says:
 “When he ascended on high, he took many captives and gave gifts to his people.”

(What does “he ascended” mean except that he also descended to the lower, earthly regions? He who descended is the very one who ascended higher than all the heavens, in order to fill the whole universe.) So Christ himself gave the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, the pastors and teachers, to equip his people for works of service, so that the body of Christ may be built up until we all reach unity in the faith and in the knowledge of the Son of God and become mature, attaining to the whole measure of the fullness of Christ.

M: The Word of the Lord.
C: Thanks be to God.

LORD GOD, YOU HAVE CALLED YOUR SERVANTS

Text: Closing Prayer from the Vespers Service
 Lutheran Book of Worship, 1978
 Music: J. Aaron McDermid

Lord God, you have called your servants
 to ventures of which we cannot see the ending;
 by paths as yet untrod, through perils unknown.

Give us faith to go out with courage, not knowing where we go,
 but only that your hand is leading us and your love supporting us;
 through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, who by your Son, Jesus Christ, commanded your church to go into all the world to preach the gospel to all creation: grant an eagerness to remain faithful to and with your Word to all whom you this day—or in the days ahead—call into full-time service to your flock. Fill them with a burning desire to make your way known upon the earth, your saving truth among all nations. Equip all those you give to serve in public ministry with whatever they need to serve you wherever you call them. Overcome in them every inclination to timidity, and fill them with a spirit of power, of love, and of self-discipline. Enable them to bear the cross for your name's sake with joy and without fear or complaint. May your Holy Spirit prosper their work, so that in both teaching and life, they display the beauty of your saving truth before all nations.

And, heavenly Father, Lord of the harvest, as your Son urged us to pray, hear our prayers for even more workers like these to be sent into your harvest field. Amen.
