Encouraging Future Entertainers

Last weekend, hundreds of guests came to watch MLC Forum's production, Into the Woods. If you think an MLC musical might be in your future, here's what a couple cast members have to say. Megan Wohlraabe (Peyton HS-CO) says, "Do it! It's awesome! You will never regret it—the relationships you form, the things you learn, the laughs you have. And you get to entertain people." Carl Boeder (MVL) adds, "Being in the musical was an incomparably great way to make friends with people who enjoy the same things I do: singing, acting, performing, and praising God with music! I always looked forward to musical practices in the evening because we all enjoyed working together." Pictured: Michael Koester (Michigan LHS) and Carl Boeder (MVL) as the two princes in Into the Woods

A Spike in High School Spirit

During Homecoming week, the volleyball team decided to wear T-shirts from each of their high schools. "I'm proud of my high school because it's a part of who I am," said Leah Nass (Manitowoc LHS). "Because MLC is smaller than most colleges, it's more like a family even if we come from different high schools." Recognize anyone?

Focusing on the Future

Almost 300 high school students came to MLC for Focus on Ministry this fall. Focus visits are a great way to discover whether MLC is the right college for you. Student Ambassador Caleb Klatt (West) explains: "High school students get a taste of the dorms, take a trip to Vogel Arena, visit the Early Childhood Center, talk to coaches, and meet with professors." Janelle Radue (WISCO) adds: "Focus trips are crucial for high school students making their college decision. What will assure the prospective students about this school is experiencing it for themselves." Pictured: Luther High students sing karaoke at Cafeteria Late Night.
