Journey to the Seminary

Last week, 35 preseminary juniors embarked on a 400-mile journey to Wisconsin Lutheran Seminary. A warm welcome from the pastors-in-training there kicked off what would be an insightful and inspiring trip.

By staying in the dorms, eating in the cafeteria, going to classes, and worshipping in the chapel, the MLC students became well acquainted with seminary life. They also had the opportunity to drill WLS seniors with questions about vicar year, their third year of theological training, which is spent serving in a WELS church.

“I really enjoyed talking to seminary seniors,” says Erich Neumann (pictured), “and being encouraged to continue in my studies, even though it may be hard, because spreading God's Word is very rewarding.”

Martin Loescher (pictured) sums up the efficacy of the trip with these words: “It gave us all a great picture of the lighthearted times that sem students experience, as well as the purpose and drive that the seminary instills in its students.”

Isaac Hayes (ALA / Emmanuel-Tempe AZ),
Jonny Lehmann (LPS / Peace-Janesville WI),
Martin Loescher (KML / David's Star-Jackson WI), and Erich Neumann (MLS / St. Stephen-Adrian MI) are ready to worship in the seminary chapel.

Helping Them Look the Part

The Pulitzer Prize-winning comedy You Can't Take It With You is coming to MLC, complete with authentic 30s hairdos, a bald cap, and a 21-year-old college student turned 75-year-old grandpa—all thanks to the Forum makeup artists!

Students like Elizabeth Duff (St. Croix / Crown of Life-West St. Paul) and Emma Schibbelhut (Luther High / St. Paul-Onalaska WI) love helping out with the production in this way. “You get to work intimately with the cast,” says Elizabeth, “but you still get to see the final product of the show, while having a little more insight on the characters.”

“It's cool seeing the actors and actresses on stage and knowing that you helped out,” Emma agrees. “This experience will also be helpful when I'm working on plays with my future students.”

Jump into the 1930s this weekend! Show times: 7:30 on Friday and Saturday, February 19-20, and 2:00 on Sunday, February 21. Tickets are available at the door for $6.

Carl Boeder (MVL / St. John-New Ulm MN),
Lydia Wassermann (Luther High / Mt. Calvary-La Crosse WI),
Joseph Loescher (KML / David's Star-Jackson WI), and
Timothy Weddle (Evergreen / Holy Trinity-Des Moines WA) play and look their parts.
