Students Get Pumped for Urban Ministry!

Forty-three students embarked on a journey to Milwaukee to learn more about urban education ministry. During their packed, three-day experience, they visited classrooms at Risen Savior, St. Marcus, Atonement, and Siloah Lutheran schools; attended seminars on urban teaching; and joined workshops on culture-building in the classroom. They were also introduced to the Center for Urban Teaching, a partner with MLC in the preparation of teachers for our new urban education ministry minor.

“The trip was a life-changing experience,” said Leah Northrop (Yale HS-MI / Emanuel Redeemer-Brockway MI). “It was such an amazing blessing to see God’s work in action and be a part of it.”

Desiree Alge (Cory Rawson HS-OH / Trinity-Jenera OH) teaches two students during the urban ministry trip. MLC students learned many new teaching techniques to use in their future ministries.

Tartuffe Takes the Stage at MLC

Members of MLC’s student-run Forum demonstrated extreme talent and hard work as they put on Tartuffe, a classic play written in the 1600s by the famous playwright Moliere. Performed entirely in rhyming poetry, the comical show tells the story of Tartuffe, an imposter who attempts to con a man named Orgon out of his property. While Tartuffe pretends to be pious, Orgon’s family tries to expose his charade. The show, directed by Jacob Limpert (SCHLS / Christ Our Rock-Rochester MN) and produced by Haley Roske (MVL / St. John-New Ulm MN), was a smashing success.
