Hey, MLC Knights: What's Your Favorite Class?

"Hebrew, because we get to dig deeper into the Bible. It's cool!"

–Isaiah Horn (LPS / St. John-Mazeppa MN)

"Kinesiology, because the group of students in it are fun and it has direct application to my future." –Luke Rosenbaum (CLHS / Living Hope-Wildomar CA)

"U.S. History Since 1945, because the discussions we have are more in-depth than any other history class I've been in." –Elizabeth Sherwood (WISCO / Grace-Milwaukee WI)

"Fit for Life, because I like sports."

–John Henning (Evergreen / Holy Trinity-Des Moines WA)

"Archery. It's just fun!" –Sarah Schulte (LPS / St. John-Hillpoint WI)

"Männerchor (Men's Choir), because I love to sing and I love our director!" –Nathan Hensler (MLS / St. Matthew-Freeland MI)

"I like British Authors because I've always been interested in European people." –Emma Schultz (FVL / First-Lake Geneva WI)

"Children's Literature, because I love learning about children's books!" –Monica Jaeger (LPS / St. Jacobi-Greenfield WI)

"Zoology, because I'm a big science person and I think Professor Klockziem is a great teacher!" –Raine Vrable (Garber HS-MI / Trinity-Bay City MI)

"Modern West. Professor Koeplin brings historical people to life!" –Ryan Henning (NELHS / St. Paul-New Ulm MN)

"Literature Seminar, because even though I don't like literature at all, Professor Grubbs makes it fun!" –Emily Unke (Manitowoc LHS / St. Paul-Howards Grove WI)

"Bible History and Literature, because it's a laid-back atmosphere and it applies to our future ministries." –Megan Wenzel (FVL / Mount Olive-Appleton WI)
