

knightwatch weekly

MARTIN LUTHER COLLEGE

www.mlc-wels.edu

December 10, 2015

Student Editor: Kylah Schroeder
LPS / Trinity-Watertown WI

It's a Wonderful Life at MLC

The Readers' Theater cast is more than ready to take the stage this weekend in the holiday radio play It's a Wonderful Life.

For many cast members, such as Joey Kasper (Collins Hill HS / Sola Fide-Lawrenceville GA), this is their first MLC theatrical production. Joey says, "I really liked meeting people during practices that I otherwise wouldn't have seen on a regular basis."

Forum (MLC's drama club) veterans enjoy being part of Readers' Theater as well. "I like the improv aspect of this show," says junior Daniel Roemhildt (Immanuel LHS / Mt. Olive-Mankato MN). "It's a Wonderful Life is also very family friendly, but it gets intense towards the end!"

Come support MLC Forum as they use their talents in this classic production! Show times: 7:30 on Friday and Saturday, December 11-12, and 2:00 on Sunday, December 13.

Jazzmin Sanchez (WISCO / St. Peter-Milwaukee WI), Hannah Heyer (FVL / Immanuel-Greenville WI), and Anna Barkholtz (FVL / Bethlehem-Hortonville WI) share the spotlight.

Surviving Exam Week

That rare time of year is approaching fast, when neither a compass, matches, or even Bear Grylls can help you survive. Exam week.

But MLC students like Kailynn, Mariah, Caitlin, and Joel know there are other ways to live through this week—and succeed! "Exams can be difficult," Joel says, "but just being responsible with your time is huge." Mariah adds, "It really helps if you prepare earlier than the night before!"

"Taking some time to be with friends is also important," Kailynn says. "Laughing keeps me sane!"

Caitlin likes that there are plenty of great places to study. "Some of the best spots are in the library, in the dorms, or off campus at places like Lola's!"

With encouragement from friends and professors, a study spot, good time management, and a focus on the real reason to study—to prepare for the public ministry—surviving exam week isn't so bad after all!

Mariah Schoof (MVL / St. Paul-New Ulm MN), Kailynn Lovett (MLS / St. Paul-Mayville MI), Caitlin Smith (HVL / St. John-Westland MI), and Joel Westenberg (LPS / St. Peter-Marshfield WI) have no fear of exam week with the help of a group study session.