Brassow Named First Team All-UMAC

Men's basketball player Todd Brassow (MLS) was named First Team All-UMAC by the coaches in the conference this week.
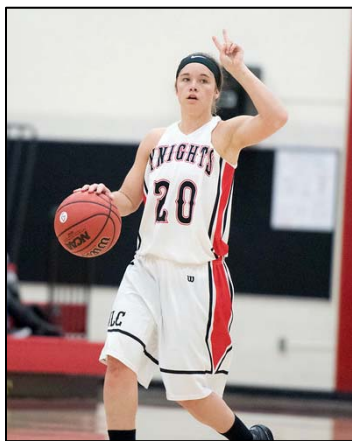

Brassow finished the season as the conference's leading scorer at 22.8 points per game. That scoring average jumped to 24.4 points per game during conference play, as Brassow scored at least 20 points in 12 of the team's 16 conference games.

The senior wing finished this year with the MLC single-season record for points (570), field goals (235), and field goal attempts (557). He finished his career fourth in program history with 1,356 career points.

Women's Basketball Season Ends at UW-Superior

The women's basketball season came to a close with a 66-51 loss in the semi-final round of the UMAC Postseason Tournament against eventual champion UW-Superior.

The Knights jumped out to an early lead against the top-seeded Yellowjackets, but turnovers proved costly in the second and third quarters as UWS began to pull away.

Grace Schultz (FVL) finished as the leading scorer for MLC with 19 points, and made seven of her nine attempts from the field. Erin Schmeling (SCLHS) added 11 points to go with three assists.

This week, Schultz and Schmeling were each voted Honorable Mention All-UMAC selections by the conference coaches.
