Winter Carnival 2018

Morgan Shevey (LPS / St. Paul-Muskego WI), guarded by Sarah Kjenstad (GPL / Trinity-Aberdeen SD), face off during speedball.

Broomballers Mishayna Uhlenbrauck (FVL / Immanuel-Greenville WI), Grant Freese (NELHS / St. Paul-Plymouth NE), and Billy Chojnacki (CLHS / Crown of Life-Corona CA), fight for possession.

Mr. Concord champ Buok Chuol (NELHS / Good Shepherd-Omaha NE) chortles as Matt Scharp (LPS / Mt. Calvary-Waukesha WI) takes a whack at an interview question. Mr. Concord showcases five first-year men from Concord Hall who try to wow the crowd with their talent and wit—perhaps at the expense of their pride. Only the best receives the prestigious title: Mr. Concord. ➔

“The snow sculpture contest was a great way to enjoy the balmy weather with friends like Ryan Gurgel (KML / Christ Alone-Thiensville WI) and Josiah Eaker (Lakeside / St. Mark-Watertown WI),” said Silas Dose (MVL / St. John-New Ulm MN). “I also smugly enjoyed the curious glances as people tried to guess what we were constructing.”

The final product: a giant seal (the animal) with a tonsure (a monk’s distinctive hairdo). The “Luther Seal!” Ryan, Silas, and Josiah ➔

➔ It was a true Talent Show Friday night. Hosts Philip Waldschmidt (LPS / St. Jacobi-Greenfield WI) and Nathaniel Savage (LPS / Grace-Glendale AZ) entertained the audience with laughs and jests as they competed King-Arthur style for the right to be dubbed a knight. Then lots of MLC Knights shared their God-given abilities to sing, dance, or—in the case of Megan Frey (MLS / St. Paul-Saginaw MI)—to hula hoop.

“It’s amazing. Circles seem so simple,” Megan said as she addressed the 700 audience members. “But God has made them complex and beautiful.” Megan’s routine mesmerized the crowd, and after the final spin of the final hoop, they shot up in a standing ovation.

We saw some of you here on the Focus on Ministry trip! God’s blessings as you decide how best to use your God-given talents!
