Winter Retreat Reflections

Thirty-five MLC students congregated with WLC students at Camp Phillip last weekend. Everyone had a blast studying God's Word, playing games, and enjoying the snowy wonderland with Christian friends new and old. "It was an absolutely awesome experience," said Sarah Goldschmidt (pictured), "to learn so much about God and what he truly wants for my life with so many other Christians who trust in him like I do."

Emily Loberger (pictured) added, "Retreat was a perfectly timed getaway to break up the long stretch between Christmas and spring break. I loved the games and Bible studies and meeting new people to enjoy them with!"

Joshua Wordell (Shoreland / Bethany-Kenosha WI) agreed: "I was able to catch up with old friends and make new friends. I had so much fun playing in the snow all day, then playing board and card games into the late hours of the night. This opportunity to get away from technology and the routine of ordinary life and focus on our Lord's Word is something I will never forget."

Preseminary juniors Donovan Williams (WISCO / Loving Shepherd-Milwaukee) and Hugo Ugalde-Bemer (LPS / Good Shepherd-Cedar Rapids IA) at the seminary

Send Me to the Seminary!

"The seminary trip offers a sort of hands-on look into what we'll really be doing out in ministry," says Andrew Stoner (Ocean Lakes HS-VA / Resurrection-Chesapeake VA). On Sunday preseminary juniors hopped on a bus and traveled six hours to Wisconsin Lutheran Seminary to discover what was in store for them in a few short years. "It was great getting closer to our brothers from MLC and from the seminary," says Erik Lund (LPS / Parkland-Tacoma WA). "Joining together around God's Word was a blessing."

They visited classes and Mission & Ministry seminars, hung out with sem students, and soaked up the feeling of unity that saturated the campus. "The message of the hymn 'We All Are One in Mission,'" says Andrew, "is shown clearly in all the work that happens here." Now it might be time for them to return to Greek and Hebrew homework, but this trip to the seminary has renewed these future pastors' focus.

Josh Thiesfeldt and Johanna Fischer at Late Nite

Knights Love Late Nite

"Late Nite is the perfect time to hang out with friends, grab a quick snack, and relax after a long day!" says Johanna Fischer (LPS / St. John-Watertown WI).

Late Nite begins when supper ends and lasts until midnight. It's a blessing to students who need sustenance to get them through homework, friends looking for a place to hang out, and after-school workers searching for a late dinner.

"I go down to Late Nite almost every night with my friends," says Josh Thiesfeldt (WLA / Redeemer-Fond du Lac WI). "The best nights tend to be the ones serving chicken tenders or stocking the Fruity Dino Bites!"

At MLC, we love Late Nite. We think you will too!
