Duke Backhaus (LPS / St. Paul-Tomah WI) and Katelyn Raddatz (Luther HS / St. John-Sparta WI) enjoy A Night in Paris.

A Night in Paris

“A Night in Paris was a great way to spend time with friends and help a family in need,” says Elise Haselerhansen (Alpha Omega Academy / Courtland-New Ulm MN). “The snacks were delicious, and I loved the cute café area they set up!”

Stylin’ students filled the gym that volunteers had transformed with lights, artwork, and even an Eiffel Tower. Cake balls, casino games, and dancing were highlights of the night. All of this was fashioned by Anchor—an MLC organization dedicated to serving others.

“This event is a great fellowship opportunity for the student body,” says coordinator Grace Schultz (FVL / First-Lake Geneva WI). “Students look forward to it every year and tell us afterwards how much fun it was, so all the planning is definitely worth it! Sometimes it seems like nothing’s coming together, but everyone always teams up to make it a success. It’s great to see how all the helpers use their unique God-given abilities to serve.”

Anchor took the $969 collected from entrance tickets and gave it to the family of Micah Jarvis (LPS / St. John-St. John’s, Antigua). “A hurricane hit my home in St. Thomas in the Virgin Islands,” says Micah. “Our house flooded, and the whole area didn’t have water or power. My family has moved to a new place, but they’re still trying to replace what we lost. I want to thank Anchor and all the students who came for helping us out. My family is doing better now!”

Unlikely godmother substitute Jonah Backus speaks with Cinderella, played by Meredith Liermann, as Children’s Theatre staged their first performance in Lake City MN last weekend.
