So, Seniors . . . Any Final Thoughts?

Three years ago, Lydia Wassermann and Joel Prange wowed the crowd at the Harvest Hoedown. This summer, they're getting married!

Eric Dorn (Illinois LHS / Trinity-Crete IL): "I am very excited for myself and my classmates as we are sent across the country and the world to serve our Lord and Savior. I feel fully prepared to have my own classroom now!"

Lydia Wassermann (Luther HS / Mt. Calvary-La Crosse WI): "My childhood dream is coming true. I am so excited for what God has in store for me."

Joel Prange (MLS / St. John-Burlington WI): "Life is full of transitions and change. For a lot of our class, this is a really big change, but I have full confidence that God will help us. Through us, his ministry will be carried out."

Becky Olson (Lakeside / St. Matthew-Oconomowoc WI): "I'm thankful to God that he has led me this far, and I'm excited for what the future brings."

Emma Schultz (FVL / First-Lake Geneva WI): "A lot has happened and a lot has changed, but it's so cool to see how everything happened for a reason and has led us to where we are now. It's all part of God's plan, and I can't wait to see what he has in store. I'm so excited for graduation and to see where God wants me to serve. It'll be a crazy week, but God knows what he's doing."

Sarah Schoenfeld (Lakeside / St. Paul-Fort Atkinson WI): "The high school version of me would never have thought I'd teach internationally. God's plan is unexpected." After graduation, Sarah and her husband, Michael Schoenfeld (Lakeside / St. John-Newville WI), will serve in Southeast Asia!

Monica Rehberger (LPS / St. Paul-Appleton WI): "I've been a student for so long that it feels almost surreal that I won't be one anymore. I'm excited by the fact that I could go anywhere, trusting that God will place me where it's best."

Tassia-Channel Clement (Castries Comprehensive / Trinity-Castries, St. Lucia): "I'm feeling nervous excitement. At the same time, I'm just thrilled to graduate, knowing that the future will be spent doing what I've been learning to do."

Caleb King (WLA / St. John-Lomira WI): "As I look back on all the experiences I've had, friendships I've made, and how my faith has been strengthened here, I can't help but be thankful for how God has blessed this school and the ministry it carries out. My prayer is that God continues to bless MLC as it prepares God's people to be brilliant gospel lights. My prayer for my fellow classmates and myself as we move on from this place is that we may continue to grow in God's grace and truth, remaining rooted in the saving message of Christ crucified and risen. Christ has never abandoned us, and he never will."

A Note from the Student Editor

Thank you for reading the KnightWatch Weekly! I've had a blast this year introducing all of you to some of the people, groups, and events that make MLC special! As you decide how best to use your unique, God-given gifts, I hope you consider coming to MLC. God's blessings as you finish up the school year! – Julia Schibbelhut (LHS / St. Paul-Onalaska WI)

Four years ago, Caleb King met some of his MLC classmates for the first time at the Ballroom Blast!
