What's All the Buzz About?

A buzz swept the hallways as mysterious boxes were hauled in from LITES (Luther Interpretive Trail & Environmental Site). Inside each case, frames filled with honeycomb oozed golden honey. The Ecology class, taught by Prof. Greg Diersen, spent their lab period processing the first harvest of MLC honey and marveling at how God created bees. "I never expected to have this experience," says Emmalie Olsen (KML / Good Shepherd-West Bend WI). "Everyone got really into it. We had so much fun!"

First, students scraped off the waxy layer that capped the honey-filled cubbies. Next, students spun the frames to force honey out of the combs and collect it in a tub. Pictured: Nathan Curtis (Georgia Connections HS-GA / Faith-Sharpburg GA), Luke Willems (Lakeside / Bethany-Ft. Atkinson WI)

Finally, students filled honey bear after honey bear with the freshest honey they'd ever tasted. In all, 144 bottles and several extra quart jars comprised this year's harvest. The honey was dispersed among MLC honey fans, and the wax was saved for another science project to come.

Abby Enstad in Connemara, Ireland—just one beautiful place on her European adventure!

Meet Abby Enstad

In a few short years, Abby Enstad (LPS / St. Paul-New Ulm MN) might be teaching English at a high school near you! Besides studying writing, communication, and literature, she also plays on the MLC soccer team. "The other girls are like my sisters," Abby says. "Even though being a student-athlete is tough, I would never give it up."

Last year, Abby flew off to study abroad in Ireland for second semester—after soccer season of course! "Being surrounded by people with different philosophies helped me understand my faith even better," Abby says. "I was able to witness to my friends there. Now I'm excited that I can use this experience to help me understand all sorts of people."

Favorite Class at MLC: Bible History and Literature II with Prof. Paul Koelpin

Favorite Spot on Campus: A specific cafeteria table with a sunny view that Abby loves to use for personal devotion time

Abby's Advice for You: Decisions are scary. Just always remember that Jesus takes your hand and leads you. Isaiah 30:21 is a comfort to me: "Whether you turn to the right or to the left, your ears will hear a voice behind you, saying, 'This is the way; walk in it.'"
