Witkowski Named Honorable Mention All-UMAC

Sophomore wing Emily Witkowski (Michigan LHS) was named Honorable Mention All-UMAC by the conference on Monday.

Witkowski led the Knights in scoring (13.0 points per game) and finished eighth in the conference with an average of 14.6 points per game during UMAC play. Witkowski also led MLC in rebounds per game (5.3) and three-point field goals (40).

Witkowski finished the season strong, scoring at least 20 points four times in her last nine games, including a career-high 27 points in a 69-58 win over Crown College in the final week of the season.

Paulsen Earns All-UMAC Honorable Mention

Paulsen drives for two

Men's basketball player Ian Paulsen (LPS) received Honorable Mention All-UMAC honors on Tuesday.

Paulsen missed the basketball season opener due to the football team's run in the NCAA Division III Championship, but made his presence felt on the hardwood by leading the Knights in points (11.2), rebounds (6.4), assists (3.2), blocks (2.3), and steals (1.5) per game. This marks the second straight season Paulsen led the team in all five categories.

The junior forward also moved his way up the all-time record lists at MLC. Paulsen now ranks second in program history with 117 career blocks, and is the first player in program history to record at least 100 career blocks and steals.

Tennis Tops North Central

The men's and women's tennis team each picked up non-conference wins against North Central University on Tuesday, February 19.
