A Sweet Week for Homecoming

Chocolate, Chocolate, Chocolate!

Sing Your Heart Out

Cornhole Contest

Twenty teams of two took advantage of a beautiful day to toss beanbags. Kyle Lindemann (LPS / St. John-Lewiston MN) and Stephen Biebert (LPS / St. John-Neillsville WI) won gold. Pictured: Josh Schroeder (LPS / St. Peter-Modesto CA)

Iron Chef, Cafeteria Edition

Class went against class in MLC's Iron Chef competition. With special ingredients and masterful plating, students wowed the judges with their creations. Pictured: Emma Schleicher (Sevastopol HS-WI / Zion-Egg Harbor WI) and Mollie Hinz (Illinois LHS / Amazing Love-Frankfort IL)

Sprinter Fun Run

Running is fun when candy's involved. This year's participants scored chocolate, door prizes, and high fives from the fall sports teams! Pictured: Marquise Jackson-Hunter (Pickerington Central HS-WI / Abundant Faith-Milwaukee) and Sam Boeder (MVL / St. John-New Ulm MN)

Football Finale

No Homecoming is complete without the football game. College Choir braved the snow to sing the National Anthem, and the Knights charged into a 51-6 victory against Iowa Wesleyan. Pictured: Marcus Sims (LPS / Immanuel-Manitowoc WI) and other College Choir members
