UMOC: Ugliest Man on Campus

What do you want to be known for? Your athleticism, your academic aptitude, your sharp wit, or . . . your ugliness? Each year during Winter Carnival, three guys compete to be the “ugliest” man on campus—a long-standing tradition that has turned into a contest of creative campaigns.

This year Josh Schroeder (LPS / St. Peter-Modesto CA, left) posed as Mister Rogers aka “Mister Schroeder.” Mark Burger (MLS / Shepherd of the Hills-Lansing MI, middle) took on the role of Burger King. And Abel Bain (LPS / St. Peter-Appleton WI, right) dyed his hair orange in the spirit of Donald Trump. Each added a comedic presence to campus, leaving the students with quite a decision to make. Would they choose Josh after seeing his nostalgic Mister Schroeder’s Neighborhood videos? Or Mark’s generous decrees and loyal entourage? Or Abel’s patriotic playlist?

In the end, Mark Burger proved to be the people’s king. He took the cake (or burger?) in an end-of-week poll.

Broomball Blast

Nothing beats broomball when it comes to Winter Carnival week. Class took on class, and while the seniors (pictured) seemed to dominate earlier in the week, the juniors triumphed in the end, nabbing Winter Carnival T-shirts and bragging rights.

Icy Competition

MLC and the MLC alumni at Wisconsin Lutheran Seminary took it to the hockey rink Friday night for their highly anticipated yearly competition. Hundreds of students turned out for a good game—and discounted pizza—in an event that capped off a week of crazy winter fun.
