Boss of the Toss

Weekend activities are a staple of campus life here at MLC. This year got off to a strong start with a cornhole tournament. Of course, there was healthy debate about whether the game is called “cornhole,” “bags,” or “beanbag toss.” Even more important was the question of who would hold the title “Boss of the Toss.” In the end, the best teams played in Sunday’s championship match, with sophomores Alexander Heiman (LPS / Grace-Tucson) and Joel Schewe (LPS / St. Peter-Clovis CA) claiming the victory.

Alexander remarked in his post-game interview, “You just have to keep your cool and keep throwing. It was awesome to see so many sophomores come out and cheer us on in the championship! Special thanks to Jace Fellers (MLS / Grace-Charlotte NC) and Lucas Martin (LPS / St. John-Jefferson WI) for being with us from the start and cheering us on the whole way as our official hype men!”

Alexander Heiman focuses intently on the goal set before him: the cornhole crown!

For the Love of Frolf

You step into cool New Ulm air and breathe in the crisp fragrance of fall. As you walk through the grass, the morning dew soaks the toes of your shoes. When you arrive at your destination, you swing your arms in broad circles, stretching tired muscles. With one last sharp breath through your nose, you step forward and launch your disc toward your target. As your trusty weapon soars through the trees, you yearn for the ringing chorus of the chains as it finds the basket.

Maybe you haven’t experienced this yearning, but the members of the MLC Disc Golf Club certainly have! Their sponsored events draw lots of attention—just last weekend, a nice crowd came out to our on-campus course to compete in a doubles tournament.

One of the club’s leaders, senior Matthew Fisher (Lakeside / Our Redeemer-Madison WI), reports, “We love to see new people out there. It’s a very enjoyable sport for everyone, no matter the skill level.”

Noah Schaewe (HVL / Faith-Sussex WI) lets loose a powerful drive on the Luther Hollow Disc Golf Course.

Knight Time Is the Right Time

You don’t need to throw a disc or toss a bag to use your God-given abilities here at MLC! In fact, a new campus activity began last week with the express purpose of giving students an avenue to display their talents. The goal is to create a sense of togetherness at each event. It’s called Knight Time!

Every Thursday night, Knight Time features some of the best live music and fun MLC has to offer. Students gather for these events on the brand-new patio between Concord and Augustana Hall. This venue offers plenty of seating and a fire pit—the perfect place to spend a fall evening on campus!

Senior Knight Time leader Julia Schibbelhut (Luther HS / St. Paul-Onalaska WI) said about the evening, “Karaoke was a blast, and I can’t wait for more! Skits? Hip-hop classes? I’m excited to see what MLC’ers come up with!”

First-years Cole Vogt (Pierce HS-NE / Immanuel-Hadar NE) and Zachary Klement (WISCO / Christ-Pewaukee WI) serenade the masses at the first Knight Time.
