

knightwatch weekly

MARTIN LUTHER COLLEGE

www.mlc-wels.edu

October 16, 2020

Student Editor: Cameron Schroeder
Luther HS / St. Paul-Onalaska WI

Junior athletic trainer Luke Schultz (LPS / Zion-Rhineland WI) tends to a “practice patient” in the training room.

Who Will Go and Work Today?

Have you heard the rumors? They’re true—college is expensive. Forbes reports that 20-somethings have amassed around $1.56 trillion in student loan debt this year—a record high. MLC has ranked number 1 on a list of best colleges for your money, and we do everything we can to keep costs low and help students stay financially smart. Nevertheless, we know school’s still expensive. That’s why hundreds of our students find jobs here on campus. I’m positive you could find a job that piques your interest too!

Enjoy being surrounded by books? Maybe you’d be a good fit for the library, shelving returns or helping a student find sources for their next big paper. Athletically inclined? Maybe you’d enjoy working in the training room or supervising our fitness center. You could serve food in the caf, help maintain the grounds, tutor students in your favorite subject, or be a part of the campus security team.

Having an on-campus job is a great way to earn your keep while earning your degree. Many of these positions are also excellent opportunities to serve God by advancing the ministry of MLC. For example, you could land an awesome gig writing a newsletter for high school students each week! Are you good with a camera? Apply to be one of the official MLC photographers. This talented crew captures all kinds of cool pictures and videos to give people an inside look at what’s going on here on the hill.

One of the coolest student jobs at MLC is campus ambassador. These special representatives of our student body assist the Admissions Office and give tours to visitors. Many times their friendly faces are a prospective student’s first impression of our school. Junior Alyssa Heckendorf (FVL / Light of the Valleys-Reno NV) said on behalf of the ambassadors, “We would love to have you visit MLC and get a chance to see what makes our school such an amazing place!”

A College on a Hill Cannot Be Hidden

Jesus himself says in Matthew 5:16, “Let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven”—a great reminder that MLC’s impact extends far beyond our campus. In our own community of New Ulm, we find lots of ways to “let our light shine.” Student Body President Phil Balge (LPS / St. Paul-New Ulm MN) told me about one such opportunity.

“Years ago,” Phil said, “the Student Senate ‘adopted’ Highway 15, north of New Ulm. Twice annually we vest up and collect trash along the side of the road. As called workers, we’ll all be active in our communities, and we can be now too! New Ulm loves MLC, so it’s very easy to send that love right back. It’s a privilege to reflect the love of Christ in this community.”

There’s always more work to be done—in the community, in the church, and in people’s hearts. The harvest is plentiful. We’d love you to come join in this ministry at our “college on a hill.”

Alyssa Heckendorf chats with Ms. Ristow in the Admissions Office about visiting with prospective students.

Phil Balge and a team from Student Senate beautify their adopted stretch of highway.