Gifts and Talents for Ministry

In our story, Mr. Johnson said that he would use all the gifts God had given him for his teaching ministry—even his sense of humor! Let's think more about gifts and talents that people can use in their ministries.

1. Look at this list of talents. Put a checkmark by any that a pastor or teacher might use in their calls.

___ love for God's Word ___ desire to serve Jesus ___ patience and kindness ___ ability to talk with people easily ___ intelligence

___ ability to explain things clearly ___ athletic ability ___ organization skills ___ musical ability

___ good listening skills ___ ability to memorize easily ___ eyes in the back of their head 😊

2. Do you have any of the gifts listed in #1? Circle the ones you think you might have.

3. Could you see yourself using those gifts as a pastor or teacher? Explain.
