

Time to Talk to the Parents

Fold the paper in half the long way. Answer the questions on the left. Then give it to your parent(s) or a special adult in your life and have them answer the questions on the right—without looking at your answers. When they're done, unfold the paper and read all the answers. Any surprises?

Questions for Me

How did my parents teach me about Jesus?

What gifts and talents has God given me?

What gifts could I use as a pastor or teacher?

If I had to decide what to be right now, what would it be?

What would I like my parents to say to me about my future?

Questions for My Parent

What do we want our son/daughter to know about Jesus?

What gifts and talents has God given our son/daughter?

What gifts could our son/daughter use as a pastor or teacher?

What careers/vocations could we see our son/daughter doing?

What would we like to say to our son/daughter about their future?