MARTIN LUTHER COLLEGE

MLC Women Repeat as UMAC Cross Country Champs

At the UMAC conference meet in St. Bonifacius, the Knights won with a score of 35, followed by Bethany with 69 and UW-Superior with 82.

Maya Habben (LPS) 24:35 led the race throughout, becoming the first individual in MLC history to place first overall. Hannah Kratz (GPLHS) 24:57 placed second overall, marking a first-ever 1-2 finish by the Knights.

Teammate Abigail Hillmer (LPS) took 6th, Claire Tomhave (LPS) took 11th, and Leah Nushart (Manitowoc LHS) took 15th overall. Katelyn Mensching (LPS) and Hope Sulzle (LPS) also placed in the top 25 individuals. Habben, Kratz, and Hillmer were named to the All-UMAC team, while Tomhave and Nushart received All-Conference Honorable Mention. All seven will now advance to the NCAA Regional Meet.

MLC Men Take Second, Losing Out on Tiebreaker

The MLC men's cross country team took second in the UMAC conference meet, tying winner UW-Superior with a score of 50, but losing out on the NCAA tiebreaker rules. (The top five runners are compared head to head, which gave UWS a 3-2 advantage.) Camden Sulzle (LPS) placed 5th, followed by teammates Caleb Lash (SLHS) and Micah Schibbelhut (LHS) at 6th and 7th. Elijah Hutchinson (LPS) placed 15th, and Joshua Zander (Manitowoc LHS) was 17th for the men. Schibbelhut, Lash, and Sulzle (pictured right) earned All-UMAC honors, while Hutchinson earned All-Conference Honorable Mention.
