MARTIN LUTHER COLLEGE

Feidt Off to Strong Start in Women's Basketball

Knight Lydia Feidt (FVL, pictured) has been instrumental in the early season success of the women's basketball team.

The first-year guard leads all MLC players with 14.3 points per game. She also has 12 steals on the year, which is tied with Lauren Paulsen (LPS) for the team lead.

Coach Dan Gawrisch said, "I was impressed by Lydia's defensive effort and offensive decision-making when I watched her play in high school, and it's been fun to see her take those skills the next step at the college level."

Feidt has done the little things that don't show up in the stat sheet too. Gawrisch adds, "She entered our program with a good understanding of the game, while also being a great teammate who is very coachable."

Knights Show Improvement in Loss to Carleton

The MLC men's basketball team fell to Carleton 99-77 on Monday.

Despite the loss, the Knights shot 42.4 percent from the floor and led for a good portion of the first half. But Carleton's size and shooting ability proved too much for MLC to overcome, as they shot 54.7 percent from the field and went 15-of-34 from behind the arc.

Thomas Balge (LPS, pictured) and Seth Veers (Lakeside) kept the Knights afloat, demonstrating toughness when attacking the basket and converting on resulting trips to the line. Balge finished with 17 points, going 7-of-7 from the free throw line. Veers made 5-of-7 from the line and led all MLC players with 23 points.

MLC will start conference play on December 9 as they host Northland in search of their first win of the season.
