

Cox Earns UMAC Player of the Week

Mason Cox (MVL, pictured) was named UMAC Player of the Week (February 27 - March 4), representing the MLC baseball team. The junior got off to a stellar start in his first eight games of the season, which took place in Auburndale, Florida.

In eight games, Cox batted .500 (13-26) at the plate with 11 RBI and 11 runs scored. The junior did it with power too, driving the ball to all areas of the outfield, hitting three doubles and two home runs. The Knights went 3-5 on the Florida trip, and Cox sparked the MLC offense in each game with his play.

Head Coach Randy Cox said, "Mason has worked hard in the weight room to improve his power. His understanding of the game of baseball and his God-given talent have helped make him a well-rounded player."

Hoffer Off to Impressive Start for MLC Softball

Lisa Hoffer (West Lutheran, pictured) was named UMAC Player of the Week (February 27 - March 4), representing MLC softball.

The shortstop had an impressive eight games in South Carolina, batting .538 (14-26) with 6 RBI and 7 runs scored.

Hoffer also displayed great leadership on the field, led MLC to three wins on the trip, and provided timely hitting in key situations.

Upcoming Events

3/26 MTN @ UW-Superior
WTN @ UW-Superior

3/28 MTN @ Hamline
WTN @ Hamline
SB @ Viterbo (DH)
BB @ Bethany

Head Coach Becca Doering was glad to see the senior gain some recognition. "The hard work Lisa has put in has played a big role toward our early season success."

