3-5 ACTIVITY 3

It's Your Line: How Could You Share Jesus?

You're going to be acting in your very own show! In a group, choose one of the scenes below. One or two students should act like a person who has never heard about Jesus. The other one or two students should share Jesus with them. Practice your mini-play and perform it for your class.

Scene: At the park Kids are playing tag and one kid notices that you're wearing a cross necklace. How could you share Jesus?	Scene: At summer camp Kids are having fun swimming, but it starts to rain. Everyone gets upset, but you try to cheer everyone up by singing a song. A friend turns to you and asks, "What makes you so happy all the time?" How could you share Jesus?
Scene: At a sleepover You and some friends are having fun playing games on Saturday night. You say you need to go to sleep soon because your mom is picking you up early for church in the morning. One of the friends asks about church. How could you share Jesus?	Scene: At a birthday party Your present for the birthday girl is a devotion book with lots of Bible passages in it. Some kids at the party have never heard of a devotion book or the Bible before. How could you share Jesus?
