

Blumer Recognized as UMAC Male Scholar-Athlete

Ezra Blumer (SCLA, pictured) was given the UMAC Male Scholar-Athlete Leadership Award. Each spring, the UMAC recognizes outstanding senior student-athletes who demonstrate excellence in academics, leadership, and service while participating in intercollegiate athletics.

On the hardwood, Blumer played basketball from 2020 to 2023, ending his athletic career with 8.5 points per game, 1.21 steals per game, and 5.8 rebounds per game.

The senior has also been named to the MLC Dean's List and the UMAC Academic All-Conference twice. Blumer's basketball coach, Greg Holzhueter, said, "Ezra was a positive leader and a willing servant."

Wolf Honored as UMAC Female Scholar-Athlete Finalist

Kylie Wolf (FVL, pictured) was also recognized as a finalist for the female UMAC Scholar-Athlete Award.

Wolf excelled in volleyball and softball, playing both sports at MLC from 2020 to 2022. In volleyball, the senior surpassed the 1,000-assist milestone and ranks 8th all-time in MLC assists with 1,034. In softball, she had a career batting average of .364.

Kylie has been recognized on both the MLC Dean's List and as a UMAC Academic All-Conference performer for three of her six participating seasons/semesters.
