

International Education Week

At our International Education Week, we celebrated global education in a variety of ways. We put the spotlight on study abroad and teaching abroad—and also got better acquainted with our international students, who come from Canada, China, South Korea, Thailand, and Vietnam.

Coordinated by the Cultural Engagement Center (CEC), the week's events included international dinners in the caf; Scripture readings in Korean, Thai, Mandarin, German, and Spanish at chapel; a "My Home" display in the CEC; a study abroad presentation; and a Human Library event—where we "read" international students by hearing their stories.

Pictured here are a few highlights. From the top: Three international and three domestic students enjoyed the Global Potluck in the CEC: Wei (Nadine) Li (Koinonia-Hong Kong / China), Liza Bornschlegl (SCLA / Resurrection and Life-Rochester MN), Jason Hanania (MLS / Bethany-Saginaw MI), Renée Johnson (Canterbury HS / St. Paul-Ottawa, Canada), AnaCristina Iglesias (Lakeside / St. Mark-Watertown WI), and Xueqian (Sissi) Gan (China).

Cultural Engagement Director Megan Kassuelke supported Morgan Behnke (Brillion HS / Trinity-Brillion WI), who told her audience about her semester in Greece.

Yu Geng (Jerry) Yang (China) read Scripture for chapel in Mandarin.

Chau Bang (Lily) Dang (Vietnam) was an "open book" at the Human Library event, answering faculty and staff questions about her life, her country, and her MLC education.
