MARTIN LUTHER COLLEGE

Cross Country Takes Second, Earns Eight All-UMAC Honors

The men's and women's cross country teams each took second at the UMAC Championship on Saturday, October 28.

The women earned four All-Conference honors. Maya Habben (LPS, pictured far left) led the women in the 6K with a sixth-place finish at 24:36.7, which earned her first-team recognition.

Katelyn Mensching (LPS) took 10th overall with a mark of 25:00.1, while Claire Tomhave (LPS) came in 12th (25:07.6) and Leah Nushart (Manitowoc LHS) claimed 14th with her time of 25:12.0. All three were named to the second team.

The men secured another four All-UMAC honors. Caleb Lash (Shoreland, pictured center) finished sixth overall in the 8K at 26:58.5, and Camden Sulzle

(LPS, pictured right) took 10th with a mark of 27:21.3, giving both seniors first-team honors. Micah Schibbelhut (Luther) and Joshua Zander (Manitowoc LHS) were named to the second team after Schibbelhut placed 11th with a mark of 27:38.0 and Zander came in 12th after he posted a time of 27:39.8.

Offensive Flurry Leads Knights Past Rams as Schoeneck Earns POTW

The women's soccer team won its final game of the season against North Central 8-0 on Saturday, October 28.

Katie Schoeneck (LPS, pictured) led the Knights in scoring and notched three goals that earned her a second UMAC Player of the Week Award.

Senior Lydia Krenke (Lakeside) had an impressive final game for the Knights, as the forward connected on two goals at the 17th and 24th minute to put MLC up 3-0.

Karissa Holdcroft (FVL) and Madeline Walz (KML) also joined the scoring barrage, recording their first career goals late in the second period, while Hailey Rice (Rocky Mountain) scored her second goal of the season.
