

Men's Soccer Takes Home Three All-UMAC Awards

The men's soccer team received three All-UMAC awards, as announced by the conference on Thursday, November 9.

Isaias Santos (LPS, pictured) was named Second Team All-Conference as a forward. The senior came on strong in the second half of the season and was an active presence all over the field. Santos finished second in goals scored (3) and points (8) for the Knights in the 2023 season.

Senior Josiah Wordell (KML) earned Honorable Mention, leading the team with five goals and 15 points. Wordell had his best season as a Knight, showcasing his dribbling ability in the open field to provide scoring opportunities for MLC throughout the season.

Jed Mittelstadt (LPS) was the third MLC player given All-UMAC recognition, earning Honorable Mention. Mittelstadt was a consistent defender who made it difficult for opponents to get shots off in the back end.

Grace Kieselhorst Named Second Team All-Conference

Junior Grace Kieselhorst (LPS, pictured) was voted Second Team All-Conference in volleyball on Wednesday.

Kieselhorst led the Knights in both kills (226) and service aces (33).

The right-side hitter also showed her versatility, ranking second on the team in assists with 301.

And she played hard defensively, collecting 199 digs (third on team).
