

Football Collects 11 All-Conference Honors

The football team earned 11 All-UMAC awards, as announced by the conference on November 16.

Mason Cox (MVL) was named to the first team after leading the Knights in receptions (53) and receiving yards (803), and tying for first in touchdown receptions with four.

Jude Pederson (LPS) was voted to the first team as a tight end and led MLC with 24.67 yards per catch. Cole Broekhuizen (MLS) was the other offensive MLC player to get first team recognition after the senior displayed veteran experience for the offensive line.

Thomas Balge (LPS), Joey Ehlke (KML), Jeremiah Stanton (LPS), and Christian Koelpin (LPS) were all named to the defensive first team.

Balge led the conference with 110 tackles, while Ehlke was second on the team with 66 tackles. Stanton recorded a UMCA-leading five interceptions, and Koelpin led the team in sacks (5) and forced fumbles (3).

Max Nordlie (MLS), Carson Oestreich (Pierce NE), Sam Rodriguez (KML), and Micah Koschnitzke (WISCO) were the four MLC players to take second team All-Conference (Offense).

Heckendorf Off to Strong Start for Women's Basketball

Jordyn Heckendorf (KML, pictured) has been off to a strong start for women's basketball, leading the Knights in points per game (12) and steals (6) in four games played this season in the MLC backcourt.

The senior is also second on the team in rebounds (21) and assists (7).

Heckendorf and the Knights are back in action on Sunday, November 26, when they face Mount Mary on the road in Milwaukee.
