

2024 Musical: Fiddler on the Roof

If you know musical theater, you might recognize these daughters of Tevye and Golde from Fiddler on the Roof. In the MLC production November 8-10, these roles will be filled by Sophia Braun, Ella Bergemann, and Lydia Meyer.

In her very first show at MLC, Sophia already can see that Forum is amazing—“for developing my theater skills and putting on great performances—all for the glory of God!” Ella, a sophomore who played Minnie Fay in last year’s Hello, Dolly!, is thoroughly enjoying Fiddler: “What I love most is how it blends Jewish culture and history with brilliant music into something rich and meaningful, while also exploring universal human themes that anyone can relate to.” And Lydia, a junior who transferred out after her first year at MLC but then came back, loves everything about this college: “I love MLC because of the unity it offers. As we study for the ministry, we have an amazing bond through our faith in Christ.” (Speaking of bonds, Lydia’s fiancé in Fiddler just happens to be her fiancé IRL too.) Here’s the whole cast:
