

A Holy Diversity: Every Nation, People, and Language

6. Studying Abroad

1. Sharing Their Stories

5. Ask Us Anything!

2. Eat Up!

4. The Human Library

3. The Word for the World

It should be quite a sight! In heaven, we'll be part of a great multitude that includes "every nation, tribe, people, and language" (Rev. 7:9). At MLC, we're so grateful for that holy diversity—and unity—in Christ! During International Education Week we celebrate it!

1. Yijun (Paul) Wang (China / MLS) and our 11 other internationals—from China, Korea, Spain, Germany, and Vietnam—had their stories featured on banners around campus.

2. These are some of the favorite foods of Chau Bang (Lily) Dang (Vietnam / WISCO). Our cafeteria gave students a taste by featuring a different international cuisine each night.

3. Each morning chapel featured the Scripture reading in a different language. Here Sam Hong-Mitchell (LPS / St. Andrew-Middleton WI) reads in Korean. Other readers spoke in Chinese, Arabic, Spanish, and German, and a Chinese praise group sang for worship.

4. At the Human Library event, Yi Le (Mary) Wang (China / MLS) and other internationals let us "read" them by asking about their personal stories. It's all about getting to know one another as fellow children of God.

5. In a panel discussion, Maeva Lopez Vicente (Spain / WISCO) and several others answered questions about their childhoods and their experiences in America and at MLC.

6. We don't only welcome internationals here. We go, go, go too! Last week David Fenske (GPL / Our Savior-Brookings SD) presented on his semester abroad in Galway. If you're interested in study abroad, our Cultural Engagement Center will help you coordinate the trip and make sure you maximize your learning—from pre-departure to re-entry!

Learn more about all this good stuff at mlc-wels.edu/cultural-engagement-center/