

What They Love About MLC

Some of them have only been here one semester, and some are ready to graduate. But all our students know what they love about this place! The MLC campus has a vibe. It's about faith and family and fitting in—but also being yourself, using your own gifts, and discovering how God has an amazing purpose just for you. Take a look at what some of our Student Ambassadors say. Does this sound like your kind of campus too?

Arthur Robinson (LPS / St. Paul-New Ulm MN, left) My favorite thing about MLC is that we're all working with each other to achieve unified goals. For example, all the preseminary guys are learning biblical languages together, allowing us to collectively help each other when one of us struggles. My second favorite thing is the opportunities we're blessed to explore. Just this fall I've been able to play football, work a part-time job as a flag football coach with aspiring young players in the community, and look into Daylight outreach missions.

Adelyn Kemnitz (WLA / St. Paul-North Fond du Lac WI, right) One of the things I love is the incredibly welcoming atmosphere. Everyone, from students to professors, greets you with a warm smile that brightens your day. It makes you feel accepted and part of a community.

Emma Frey (SCLA / Foundation-Las Vegas, left) One thing I really love is the chapel services. Having chapel two to three times a day is such an amazing way to reset yourself. I'm a music person, so listening to the entire student body and staff singing praises to God is one of the most amazing things! Compline on Monday night is my favorite chapel service. I've never liked Mondays, but at MLC, Mondays are my favorites!

Jake Albrecht (KML / Christ Alone-Thiensville WI, right) One thing I love about MLC is how caring the faculty and staff are. They care more about you as a person, rather than only as a student. If I have any problem, I know I can go straight to my profs, and they'll be understanding.

Connor Heckendorf (LPS / Light of the Valleys-Reno NV, left) Two of my favorite things about MLC are 1) the ability MLC students have to be involved in many extracurricular activities throughout the year, and 2) the very clear and obvious care the professors have for the students at MLC.

Hailey Rice (RMLHS / Living Hope-Commerce City CO, right) When you're a first-year attending college for the first time, you think about all the things that could go wrong. Will I miss class? Who will I sit by? You overthink everything. The coolest thing about MLC is that everyone on campus is so friendly and welcoming. You can say Good Morning and Hello, and there is always a smiling face saying it back to you.
