You'd Never Guess . . .

Our Student Ambassadors admit they were in for a few surprises when they first arrived on campus! Like many of you, they'd heard some things about MLC—too small, too quiet, too cliquey. But once they experienced MLC for themselves, their perspective changed. Eight of them share their thoughts here. Give them a read—and then come visit campus! We bet you'll be surprised too!

Hear from Connor & Ella!

Noelle Berg

Wisconsin LHS

You'd never guess just how many opportunities MLC has to offer, whether that's things to do in your free time or Daylight trips or getting involved in worship.

Thomas Balge

Luther Prep

MLC is arguably the tightest knit college out there. Pretty much everyone knows everyone. Most people will say hello to each other passing through hallways, which is not the case with many other colleges.

Luke Latzke

Illinois LHS

MLC professors and leaders actually care enough to know your name and where you're from. Many professors I don't even have class with know my name and will talk with me.

Olivia Klabunde

Redwood Valley HS-MN

Once a month, professors bring dogs to campus for students to hang out with! And the intramurals are great. I love getting off campus and playing sand volleyball with my friends!

Jake Albrecht

Kettle Moraine LHS

Something about MLC that you'd never guess is how many times we worship in the chapel. Whether it's morning, evening, or even at 10 pm, there are so many opportunities to get into the Word of God!

Jack Pittenger

Evergreen LHS

Everything is so conducive to a busy college schedule. The caf is open from 7:00 am – midnight, the weight room from 5:30 am – 10:00 pm, and the library from 7:15 am – midnight.

Isabelle Steidl

Wisconsin LHS

I was surprised how strong and supportive the community is. Being surrounded by others also preparing to serve in public ministry creates a unique and encouraging environment I couldn't have imagined before coming here.

Hailey Rice

Rocky Mountain LHS

I had no idea how many opportunities there'd be. Talent shows, clubs, dorm activities, intramurals—MLC makes sure there are plenty of ways to meet new people, use your God-given abilities, and really feel like part of the community.
